EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Mark Kirkland on February 2, 2005.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 2 and 7, line 9, "receiving" has been deleted and replaced by --destination--.

Claim 20, line 2, after "an output of the", the recitation, --source-- has been entered.

Reasons for Allowance

Claims 1-20 are allowable over the prior art of record.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the best prior art of record, Cross, taken alone or in combination of other references, does not teach or fairly suggest a method or a circuit comprising, among other things, selecting a stable input for each bistable circuit of the destination register based on whether the detected change in the status bit is likely to produce metastability in the destination register including selecting the stable input if the status bit change window occurs too close to an edge of a delayed version of the destination clock (claim 1); registering the data and a status bit in a source register clocked by the source clock (claim 2); clocking a plurality of receive register flip-flops with a delayed copy of the destination clock (claim 7); and a receiving circuit including a monitoring circuit, wherein one input is operatively coupled to receive a status bit output of the source, a second input operatively coupled to receive a destination clock, and an output operatively coupled to control inputs of a group of multiplexers (claim 12), as set forth in the claims.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
